

Bylaws

33rd Legislative District Organization
State of Washington
(Revised and adopted on February 12, 2024)

Preamble

We, the members of the Democratic Party residing within the Washington State 33rd Legislative District boundaries, in order to contribute to the growth, development and influence of the Democratic Party in our communities, the county, the state and in the nation, to elect declared Democrats and like-minded candidates to public offices of all types, to support the platform of the Democratic Party, and to encourage good citizenship and community responsibility by supporting participation, equal representation, and equal treatment of all, do hereby associate ourselves together and establish this Charter.

Article I Name

This organization shall be known formally as the Washington State Thirty-Third Legislative District Democratic Organization. The informal name of this organization shall be the 33rd District Democrats.

Article II Membership

Section 1. Precinct Committee Officers. All Democratic elected and appointed Precinct Committee Officers (PCOs) who reside in the 33rd Legislative District are automatically members of the 33rd Legislative District Democratic Organization, with full voting rights, upon the beginning of their term. They are not required, though highly encouraged, to pay dues. Only a lawfully registered voter is eligible to become, or continue as, a PCO, and only in the precinct of his/her current residence (RCW 29A.80.041).

A. Elected Precinct Committee Officers. An Elected PCO is one chosen through the primary election process in even-numbered years, to serve for two years commencing on the first day of December following the primary (RCW 29A.80.051)

B. Appointed Precinct Committee Officers. Any vacancy in the office of PCO may be filled via the County Chair appointing to that office a lawfully registered voter of the precinct (RCW 29A.80.031)

C. Acting Precinct Coordinator. Acting Precinct Coordinator is a person appointed to perform the duties of a PCO while ineligible to hold such office due to place of residence or any other circumstance that prevents him/her from being a registered voter in the precinct served. Election of a PCO, or an appointment pursuant to RCW 29A.80.031, shall supersede the status of any Acting Precinct Coordinator. In these Bylaws, the term "PCO" where unqualified, shall not be construed as referring to an Acting Precinct Coordinator.

D. Appointment Procedures: Applications for appointment to fill a PCO or Acting Precinct Coordinator position for a given precinct must be acted on at a general meeting of the 33rd Legislative district. Applications submitted within a reasonable time prior to the next regular District meeting (not to exceed two (2) weeks), shall be voted on at that meeting by the District PCOs, and if approved, shall be

- a. Signed by the Chair
- b. Deemed recommended by him/her for purposes of RCW 29A.80.031, and
- c. Sent on a monthly basis to KCDCC via mail, email attachment, webform, FAX, or otherwise delivered for KCDCC Chair signature.

Signature by the KCDCC Chair shall complete the process, and this shall be the only method of appointment for PCO or Acting Precinct Coordinator positions. Identifying information for all PCOs and Acting Precinct Coordinators will be entered into an official, regularly updated listing posted at the KCDCC website, with copy filed at the KCDCC office.

Section 2. Non-PCO Members. Any resident, age 18 or above, of the 33rd Legislative District able to independently declare partisan affiliation is eligible to become a Voting Member by paying annual membership dues. New members shall be eligible to vote and run for office as specified by these bylaws twenty-five (25) days after payment or waiver of dues. Renewing members will have their full membership rights restored immediately upon payment of dues.

Section 3. Youth Members. Any person between the age of thirteen and seventeen years old residing within the 33rd Legislative District, may hold a youth membership in this organization by supporting the principles of the Democratic Party, and may become a voting member upon payment of annual dues.

Section 4. Member Rights. Only Precinct Committee Officers as noted in Section 1 shall vote for District Chair, Vice Chair, State Committee Members, and any Representative the Legislative District organization is authorized to send to other Party organizations, and on the adoption or amendment of bylaws. For all other matters, voting members shall include all Precinct Committee Officers as noted in Section 1, all Non-PCO Members whose dues are paid as noted in Section 2, and all Youth Members whose dues are paid as noted in Section 3.

Article III

Dues

Section 1. Membership Dues. An annual membership fee shall be solicited from all members, due at the beginning of each calendar year, to fund operating costs for meeting space, communications, events, etc.

Section 2. Dues Levels.

Membership Level	Dues
Student (13-17)	$10
Basic	$40
Family (2 voting memberships)	$60

Section 3. Participation. At no time, in keeping with the principles of democracy and the Democratic Party, shall district membership or participation be limited by ability to pay membership dues. A reduced fee shall be offered to those who cannot afford the full cost of annual dues by contacting the Chair who will coordinate with the Treasurer for consideration and approval.

Section 4. Use of Funds. Funds raised through membership dues, donations, and fundraisers in excess of basic operating costs may be used for campaign donations approved by the Executive Board and membership, as allowed by the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission (PDC).

Section 5. Reporting of Funds. All membership dues, donations, funds raised and expenditures will be reported to the PDC, as required by Washington State law. Financial reports of revenue and expenditures will be provided to the Executive Board each month, and made available to the membership no less often than quarterly, and upon request.

Article IV

Shall report upon the activities of the Legislative Action Committee in a concise fashion, and shall perform other duties as assigned by the Chair or Executive Board.

9. Legislative Action Committee Alternate (1): In the absence of either Legislative Action Committee Representative, shall attend all meetings of the Legislative Action Committee and represent the interests of the 33rd District in voice and vote. Shall report upon the activities of the Legislative Action Committee in a concise fashion, and shall perform other duties as assigned by the Chair or Executive Board.

Section 2. Appointed Officers. The officers of this organization to be appointed every other year by the Chair, and approved by the Executive Board and general membership, shall be as follows: Parliamentarian, Sergeant-at-Arms, Registrar, PCO Coordinator, Endorsement Committee Chair, Communications Committee Chair, and Events and Outreach Committee Chair.

A. Duties of Appointed Officers:

1. Parliamentarian: Shall advise the Chair in parliamentary rulings during the business of the District Meetings or Executive Board meetings, to assist the Chair in the interpretation of the District Charter and Standing Rules, and/or the County, State or National Charter, shall chair any district general or Executive Board meetings in the event of the absence of the Chair and Vice Chair, and to perform other duties as assigned by the Chair or Executive Board.

2. Sergeant-at-Arms: Shall assist the Chair and the Parliamentarian in maintaining parliamentary order during all general meetings and Executive Board meetings, shall seek to maintain civil order during meetings, including calling emergency personnel if required, shall lead the membership in orderly behavior in the unlikely event of location evacuation and/or emergency response, and shall perform other duties as assigned by the Chair or Executive Board.

3. Registrar: Shall register the names of those voting members in attendance at each general or special district meeting, shall register the names of those requesting new membership at each general meeting, shall record the names of those new members approved at each meeting, shall maintain list of current voting membership, shall serve as credentialing officer for the bi-annual district and King County re-organization meetings, for the Legislative District Caucus, and for the 33rd District at the Congressional District and State Conventions, in accordance with the charter and standing rules of those bodies, and shall perform other duties as assigned by the Chair or Executive Board.

4. PCO Coordinator: Shall be chiefly responsible for new member recruitment, especially to serve as elected or appointed PCOS in vacant precincts, shall keep track of PCO applications, respond to requests for information about becoming and serving as a PCO, and shall assist Registrar with maintaining list of members who become eligible to vote by becoming a PCO, shall help to develop relevant communications pertaining to the duties of PCOs, and shall perform other duties as assigned by the Chair or Executive Board.

5. Committee Chairs: Each Chair of the Endorsement, Communications, and Events and Outreach Committees shall serve on the Executive Board. Each Chair will lead their respective committees, schedule committee meetings, report on activities, and provide budget requests on behalf of their committees. Committee Chairs will be responsible for recruiting and managing committee members and volunteers, and coordinating with each other and the Executive Board. Committee Chairs may be selected by a vote of their respective committee or by appointment by the Chair of the Executive Board.

6. King County Young Democrats Representatives: The King County Young Democrats may nominate two candidates of different gender to serve on the 33rd's Executive Board as a King County Young Democrats representative, or the Chair may appoint a representative from the membership.

Section 3. Chair's Authority to Appoint Officers. The Chair has the authority to appoint, upon approval of the Executive Board and the general membership, any other officers deemed useful or necessary to the fulfillment of the goals and responsibilities of the 33rd District Democrats organization. These officers serve the same term as elected positions, with terms ending upon the election of a new Chair. The total number of Chair-appointed positions shall be limited so that at no time may the appointed positions plus the Chair equal a majority of the Board.

Section 4. One-Vote Limit. No district member may hold more than one permanent office having Executive Board vote, elected or appointed, simultaneously. This does not preclude an Executive Board officer from performing the duties of another office in the event of absence of an officer, vacancy in an office, or assignment by the Chair or the Executive Board.

Section 5. Failure to Attend Meetings. If any 33rd District officer fails to attend three (3) consecutive district meetings or Executive Board meetings, without contacting the Chair, Vice Chair or Secretary and providing a reason for absence, such absences shall be considered an official act of resignation.

Section 6. Chair Vacancy. A vacancy in the office of the Chair shall be filled by the Vice Chair at the meeting immediately following the confirmation of the vacancy.

Section 7. Vacancies. Vacancies in all other Executive Board offices, as defined in Article IV, shall be filled by appointment from the Chair, subject to confirmation by the Executive Board and the general membership. If the appointment of vacant positions by the Chair exceeds the number of Board positions the Chair may appoint, the Vice Chair will appoint vacant positions, subject to confirmation by the Executive Board and the general membership.

Article V

Executive Board

Section 1. Membership. The following constitutes the voting membership of the Executive Board of the 33rd District Democrats: Chair, Vice Chair, Treasurer, Secretary, Washington State Democratic Central Committee Representatives, King County Democratic Central Committee Representatives and Alternates, Legislative Action Committee Representatives and Alternates, Parliamentarian, Sergeant-at-Arms, Registrar, PCO Coordinator, King County Young Democrats Representatives, Committee Chairs, and any other duly approved district officers serving by appointment of the Chair shall be voting members of the Executive Board.

Section 2. Ex-Officio Officers. Any member in good standing of the 33rd District Democrats holding an elected executive office in the King County Democratic Central Committee, on the Washington State Democratic Central Committee Executive Board or on the Democratic National Committee shall be an ex-officio member of the 33rd District Executive Board.

Section 3. Meeting Chair. The District Chair shall chair all Executive Board meetings.

Section 4. Frequency. The Executive Board shall meet at the call of the Chair at least once every month.

Section 5. Notice. At least seven (7) days' written notice of an Executive Board meeting shall be provided to each Executive Board Member, including date, time, and location.

A. Emergency Meetings. For issues of an urgent or timely nature, emergency meetings of the Executive Board may be called with less than seven (7) days' notice by any Executive Board member, provided that no Executive Board member issues a challenge to the action taken at the meeting. Such challenge must be submitted in writing to the Chair or Vice Chair within seven (7) days of the next general district meeting. A good faith effort must be made to contact every member of the Executive Board prior to the emergency meeting. An emergency meeting of the Executive Board does not have to be convened in person, and voting may occur electronically, if all Executive Board members have full access to the voting format.

Section 6. Purpose. The Executive Board shall be the governing body of this organization between 33rd District meetings. The Executive Board shall set organizational policy where necessary, especially in the following areas:

- A. Oversee all activities of the organization.
- B. Approve funding and expenditures of all activities, both specific, and discretionary.
- C. Recruit new membership.
- D. Remove officers for just cause.

Section 7. Quorum. A quorum of the Executive Board shall consist of no less than fifty percent (50%) plus one (1) of the eligible Executive Board votes, and the Secretary shall call the roll at the beginning of each meeting.

- A. Any meeting at which a quorum is not present shall be deemed a meeting of the committee of the whole.
- B. Decisions made by a committee of the whole meeting shall be non-binding and shall not be implemented until approved at the next General Meeting or official Executive Board meeting at which a quorum is present. Decisions made by a committee of the whole must be included in the notice of the next Executive Board meeting.

Article VI

Committees

Section 1. Committee Membership and Chairs. Committee members will be recruited from the membership and Executive Board to perform the functions of each committee, as needed to further the organization's functions and goals. Chairs shall be selected by the Committee members or selected by the Chair of the Executive Board, and approved by the Executive Board and membership.

Section 2. Communications Committee. The Communications Committee shall perform duties that communicate meetings, events, actions, endorsements, notices, and other issues of interest to the membership relevant to the purpose of the organization. This may include a newsletter, website, social media, printed materials, and other collateral. A variety of print and electronic formats should be made available and accessible, including to members who are visually impaired and in multiple languages whenever possible and needed to support access to district information.

Section 3. Events and Outreach Committee. The Events and Outreach Committee shall be responsible for planning and executing all fundraising, outreach, social, and membership building efforts for the 33rd Legislative District approved by the Executive Board, and in coordination with the PCO Coordinator when appropriate. The Committee shall maintain and promote a calendar of events and activities available to members, either planned by the 33rd District or otherwise held in the community, that support the interests and goals of the organization.

Section 4. Endorsement Committee. The Endorsement Committee shall be responsible for conducting outreach to candidates in races relevant to the 33rd District, schedule their endorsement presentations to the membership, and help to manage a smooth endorsement process. The Committee will work with the Communications Committee to post information about the 33rd District's endorsement schedule for members, and develop a Voter's Guide or other similar promotional materials about candidates endorsed by the 33rd District.

Section 5. Other Committees. The Executive Board may create other short-term or standing committees, as needed to further the organization's functions and goals. Committee meetings shall be posted and available to the general membership.

Article VII

Removal of Officers

Section 1. Impeachment. The process for removal of any officer, either elected or appointed, shall be as follows:

A. Grounds. Grounds for removal shall be misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in the performance of an officer's duties.

B. Charges. A motion for removal must be made at a regular or special meeting of the Executive Board. Charges demanding removal shall be referred to the Executive Board to ascertain, by two-thirds (2/3) vote, whether or not said charges are proper grounds for removal.

C. Inability to Charge. If the Executive Board cannot determine by majority vote that the charges are proper grounds for removal, said charges shall be dropped and stricken from the record.

D. Impeachment Action. Once the Executive Board has determined the charges before the body to be proper grounds for removal, the Executive Board shall place the motion for removal on the agenda of the next regularly scheduled general membership meeting. A detailed statement of the charges shall be mailed or emailed to each member in good standing of the general membership at least fifteen (15) days prior to the meeting where the impeachment proceedings will be heard, which shall be held no more than thirty (30) days following the day charges were first brought before the Executive Board.

E. Right to Face Accuser. The parties calling for removal of an Executive Board member must be present at the general membership meeting at which removal is considered. The Executive Board member subject to removal must be present, or proof must be offered that the officer subject to removal was notified of the meeting and chose not to attend. If proper notice to the officer was proven to have been delivered, failure to attend will be considered an official act of resignation. The Executive Board member subject to removal must be given the opportunity to respond at or before the meeting at which removal is considered.

F. Eligibility to Vote on Impeachment. Only voting members on the membership rolls at the time charges were brought before the Executive Board shall be eligible to vote on the motion for removal. A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of those present and eligible to vote shall be required for removal of an officer.

Section 2. Resignation or other termination. Upon the death, resignation or change of residence from the District of a PCO or Board member, the position shall be declared vacant. In the event that an Officer does not attend three consecutive Executive Board or district membership meetings, the Executive Board may declare the position to be vacant. Any vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term at the next regular or special meeting, provided that written notice shall be made available to all members at least fifteen (15) days in advance of the meeting.

Article VIII

Meetings

Section 1. Organizational Meetings. During January of each odd-numbered year or within sixty (60) days of any redistricting action based upon National or State census, the Chair of the King County Democratic Central Committee shall call a meeting of the duly elected Precinct Committee Officers for the purpose of organizing said district. The existing district organization shall function until the district organizational meeting.

Section 2. Regular Meetings. The 33rd District Democrats shall meet at the call of the Chair at least once per quarter, preferably once per month, except the month of December.

A. At least ten (10) days' mailed, emailed, or posted notice of a general district meeting shall be available to each voting member, including date, time, and location.

B. The regular meeting of this organization shall be called by the Chair each month. The meeting shall be as announced in the newsletter, website, or other means that effectively notifies the membership.

C. A quorum to conduct business shall never consist of less than five members, one of whom is an elected officer. After a meeting is called to order, a quorum shall not be less than fifty percent of the members present at the time the meeting is called to order.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special Meetings may be held at the call of the Chair or the call of fifty percent (50%) of the elected district Officers, or by written petition of ten percent (10%) of the voting members submitted to a member of the Executive Board.

A. At least ten (10) days' mailed, emailed or posted notice of a special district meeting shall be available to each voting member, including date, time, and location.

B. A quorum to conduct business shall never consist of less than five members, one of whom is an elected officer. After a meeting is called to order, a quorum shall not be less than fifty percent of the members present at the time the meeting is called to order.

Section 4. Proxy Voting. No proxy voting shall be allowed at any organizational, general, or special district meetings.

Section 5. Emergency Operations. In the event a public emergency or natural disaster makes the holding of an in-person meeting of the organization unlawful, impossible, or potentially hazardous the organization may conduct its meetings by electronic or other remote access means as reasonably necessary for the duration of the emergency or disaster; provided that the organization shall use its best efforts to implement any such virtual meetings with full regard for the need to maintain as much as possible accessibility for all members, including those with disabilities and those who lack access to sophisticated technology tools. Any action that could be taken at an in-person meeting, including bylaws amendments, may also be taken at a virtual meeting held pursuant to this clause but any action taken at any such virtual meeting shall be subject to reconsideration at a subsequent Regular meeting of the organization held after such virtual meeting or meetings. Reconsideration shall be by 2/3rds vote of members present and voting.

Article IX Endorsements

Section 1. Endorsement Meetings. Any regularly scheduled meetings between filing date and the November general election may be open for agenda items relating to endorsements. The agenda need not name specific candidates, offices, or ballot issues, but every effort to provide the membership with a schedule of candidates, offices and ballot issues that will be endorsed at the meeting should be made in advance.

A. Action. Action taken may include Endorsement, No Endorsement, or No Action. An Endorsement is specifically positive, No Endorsement is specifically negative, and No Action is as stated -- no action, either positive or negative, is taken at that time.

B. Process. To endorse or withhold endorsement requires a specific motion, and a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those members present who are eligible to vote. No Action does not require a specific motion or vote by the body. A motion for Endorsement or No Endorsement for a specific candidate or issue may be brought to the membership no more than two times per election cycle, but an approved motion may not be reversed.

C. Dual Endorsements. Candidates must be endorsed individually, but more than one candidate for the same office may be endorsed. Motions for sole endorsement are out of order.

Section 2. Endorsement of candidates and ballot measures after primary elections. The Executive Board shall schedule an endorsement meeting after the primary election for the purpose of endorsing candidates or ballot measures in the general election, except that no endorsement shall be considered in races where a candidate endorsed by the District before the primary election advances to the general election, or for those candidates or issues failing to receive an endorsement through two prior votes.

Section 3. Public Statements and Funds Dispersal. No public statement or endorsement may be made or funds dispersed on behalf of candidates without endorsement as specified in this article.

Article X Resolutions

Section 1. Consideration of resolutions. Resolutions for consideration at a District meeting shall be submitted in writing and given to the District Chair in advance of the Executive Board meeting, providing time for consideration and recommendation by the Board to pass on to the membership. All resolutions shall be submitted in writing and signed by the sponsor. Resolutions presented later may be considered at the discretion of the Chair, using the following factors to determine whether a resolution should be considered: the resolution is written and legible, there are sufficient copies available for the membership to review, the resolution is timely, and the resolution will likely be moot if postponed until the next meeting.

Section 2. Voting on Resolutions. Resolutions for consideration at any regular meeting must be made available to the membership at least five (5) days prior to the meeting and included in the meeting notice. Last minute resolutions may be considered at the general meeting, with two-thirds (2/3) approval of eligible members present and voting to allow consideration. Resolutions brought forward at the reorganization meeting can be brought forward after re-adoption of the Bylaws.

Section 3. Referral to Committee. The Executive Board may recommend action on a resolution or may refer a resolution to a committee for comment or clarification. At no time shall a resolution brought forward by a member be stalled more than 30 days without action.

Article XI

Amendment Procedure

Section 1. Amendment Procedure. Amendments to this Charter shall be adopted only by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the voting members attending any regular district meeting, provided such amendment was proposed in writing and mailed, emailed or otherwise made available to all voting members thirty (30) days prior to the meeting at which such change shall be voted upon.

Section 2. Effective Date. Amendments to this Charter shall become effective immediately after adjournment of the meeting at which the change was approved.

Article XII

Policy

Section 1. Ideals. It shall be the policy of this organization to endeavor to uphold all ideals set forth in this Charter and by the Democratic Party.

Section 2. King County Democratic Central Committee Affiliation. This organization is a part of the King County Democratic Central Committee, shall be in compliance with all Bylaws of the King County Democratic Central Committee, and shall endeavor to carry forth the work of that organization in the 33rd Legislative District.

Section 3. Senior Party Cooperation. This organization seeks a cooperative relationship with the Washington State Democratic Central Committee and the Democratic National Committee and shall be guided by the actions of the Democratic Party assembled in state or national convention.

Section 4. Continuous Function. This organization functions continuously.

Article XIII

Parliamentary Authority

Section 1. Rules. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Organization in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws, the charter and/or bylaws of the King County Democratic Central Committee, The Washington State Democratic Central Committee, the Democratic National Committee, the United States Constitution and any special rules of order the Organization may adopt. RONR (12th ed.) 56:66.

Section 2. Conflict Resolution. In all cases where this charter is in conflict with any senior party Charter or Bylaws, the conflict shall be resolved in favor of the most senior charter (e.g. the Charter of the Democratic National Committee supersedes the Bylaws of the King County Democratic Central Committee).
